

FAIR HOUSING

Learn the rights of tenants and homeowners to stop unfair housing practices

The Fair Housing Act of 1968 “It is the Policy of the United States to Provide, within Constitutional limitations, for fair housing throughout the United States.” – 42 U.S.C § 3601. In Elevate’s Fair Housing training, participants will learn to recognize housing discrimination, when their rights and the rights of others are being violated, and how to help put a stop to unfair housing practices. Learners will walk away with a better understanding of how to identify housing discrimination, and the steps to follow to report unfair housing practices. This course is eligible for 3 CEU credit hours.

Class Format
On-site/virtual

CALL TODAY!

Julie Burns

(646) 416-6441

julie@elevate4success.com

ELEVATE

www.elevateBDG.com

www.elevate4success.com

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Rental/Real Estate Discrimination
- Other Discriminatory & Illegal housing infractions
- How to file a Discrimination Complaint and its investigation process
- Protections for and Rights of disabled renters and buyers
- Reasonable modifications, accommodations, and FHA accessibility requirements